Peace and grace in the love of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Revelation 6:1-2

6:1 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see."

6:2 And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

The revival of the white horse is the same as the one of Holy Spirit at the latter rain. It is the revival in the light of the arrows or the Bride Tidings to sanctify and perfect our life. It is also the revival for punishing the sins.

2 Kings 13:14-16

13:14 Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

13:15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he took himself a bow and some arrows.

13:16 Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

The revival of Holy Spirit at the latter rain is the one in continual victories up to the peak, namely the last victory when we sit with Jesus on the throne of the heavenly kingdom forever.

Revelation 3:21

3:21 "To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

Revelation 6:2

6:2 And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

Every victory will result in the crown.

Revelation 19:11-12

19:11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.

19:12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself.

There are many crowns in the end of the revival of the white horse. It means that there are many victories.

There are five kinds of crowns which the heavenly bride gets as follows.

1. The crown of righteousness.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

4:8 Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

The requirement is fighting to keep the faith until the end line, namely when we pass away or Jesus comes a second time.

The facts found in it are as follows.

- We keep on believing in and confessing Jesus regardless of anything we must face.
- We keep on living in righteousness regardless of anything we must face.
- We keep on holding fast to the true teaching Word regardless of anything we must face.

1 Timothy 4:1-2

4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons,

4:2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron,

In the anointing of Holy Spirit, we can be firm to hold fast to the true teaching Word and reject the other teachings, including gossips. We do not give any opportunity to hear the other teachings, so we will not fall away until the end line, namely when we pass away or Jesus comes a second time.

The results are as follows.

- Being saved and preserved by God up to our descendants. We are blessed and become blessings for others.

Proverbs 10:2-3

10:2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, But righteousness delivers from death.

10:3 The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish, But He casts away the desire of the wicked.

- Receiving the crown of righteousness.

1 John 3:7

3:7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

2. Imperishable crown.

1 Corinthians 9:25-27

9:25 And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.

9:26 Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air.

9:27 But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

The requirement is fighting to preach the true teaching Word and hear it until obeying it and the flesh does not speak anymore.

The results are as follows.

- We live in the holiness and love one another.

1 Peter 1:22

1:22 Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart,

Ephesians 4:11-12

4:11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers,

4:12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ,

Such kind of life will be equipped with the ministry or appointed as priests and kings. He is used in the ministry for the edifying of the perfect body of Christ. As a result, God adorns and beautifies his life.

On the contrary, one who is unrighteous and unholy; even hates the others, is being used in the edifying of Babylon which will be destroyed forever.

- Never seeing death. It means that one does not perish, but gets eternal life and crown.

John 8:51

8:51 "Most assuredly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death."

3. The crown of life.

Revelation 2:10

2:10 "Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life."

The requirements are as follows.

- Fighting to be able to serve and minister to God faithfully and correctly according to the ministry which has been entrusted to us until the end line.

- Fighting to endure temptations in all aspects of life. We keep on fully believing and hoping in God.

James 1:12

1:12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

The results are as follows.

- We get the joy of heaven which cannot be affected by anything in the world.
- We do not enter the second death in the hell, but get the eternal life or receive the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11

2:11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death."

4. The crown of glory.

1 Peter 5:4

5:4 and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

The requirement is fighting to be shepherded to one true teaching Word and dwell always in the shepherding pen. In Tabernacle, the shepherding pen refers to the Holy Place or the perseverance in doing the three main services to God as follows.

- Golden Candlestick or perseverance in doing General Service to have the fellowship with Holy Spirit God in the gifts.
- Table of Showbread or perseverance in doing Bible Study Service with Holy Communion to get the fellowship with the Son of God in the Word and the sacrifice of Christ.
- Golden Altar of Incense or perseverance in doing Worship Prayer Service to get the fellowship with Father God in the love.

Our body, soul, and spirit attach to the trinity of God, so the trinity of Satan cannot touch us.

1 Peter 5:2-3

5:2 Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly;

5:3 nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock;

The facts found in the shepherded life are as follows.

- Fighting to be able to willingly serve and minister to God, not by compulsion. We are not forced by anyone and do not force others.
- Fighting to be able to serve and minister to God without any intention to get physical advantage, but with dedication and sacrifice.
- Fighting to be the example.

1 Timothy 4:12

4:12 Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

It starts from five things. It comes from the five wounds of Jesus on the cross, namely the examples in word, conduct, love, faith, and purity.

- Fighting to be able to obey the voice of the Shepherd.

1 Peter 5:5-6

5:5 Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for "God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble."

5:6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,

As a result, we are exalted in His time. Our life is successful and beautiful in His time. We are glorified when Jesus comes a second time and receive the crown of glory.

5. The crown of rejoicing or joy. It is the crown of the bride.

1 Thessalonians 2:19-20

2:19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?

2:20 For you are our glory and joy.

Song of Solomon 3:11

3:11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, And see King Solomon with the crown With which his mother crowned him On the day of his wedding, The day of the gladness of his heart.

Revelation 19:6-7

19:6 And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns!

19:7 "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready."

We welcome Jesus' second coming with such crown and joyfully shout "Alleluia".

The requirement is experiencing the sprinkling of blood or the suffering in the flesh because of Jesus.

John 16:20-21

16:20 "Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

16:21 "A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world.

The sprinkling of blood is the same as the sorrow of a pregnant mother who will deliver the baby, namely to get the joy. We indeed suffer in our flesh, but we will get the renewal of life like a newborn baby.

The sign of the newborn baby is the sincere or peaceful heart which does not condemn. As a result, we can cry and worship God.

Hebrews 4:16

4:16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

It is the same as coming to the throne of grace of Jesus as the High priest. We only pay attention to the great mercy of God. We fully believe and entrust our life to God as well as surrender and cry out to Him.

Isaiah 49:15-16

49:15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, And not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely they may forget, Yet I will not forget you.

49:16 See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me.

Jesus as the High Priest will always remember and pay attention to the little powerless babies. He pays attention to and cares for us. Moreover, He inscribes us in the palms of His hands. His eyes always watch over us. We live in the embrace of the great merciful hands of God which are able to preserve and protect our life up to the time when the antichrist reigns over the world for three years and a half. The great merciful hands of God bear all of our weariness and heavy burdens, so all things become easy and light. The great merciful hands of God are able to guide us to the New Jerusalem. The physical miracles will also happen. Our life becomes successful and beautiful until we are changed to be as perfect as Jesus is when He comes a second time. We do not stumble in words. We welcome Him with the crown of the bride and the joyful shout "Alleluia".

God blesses you.
