

Prayer Service in Malang, August 10, 2010 (Tuesday Evening)

Matthew 25:14-15

25:14. "For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them.

25:15 And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey.

God delivers heaven's goods/talents/ministry and the gift of the Holy Spirit to sinful people. This is God's kindness.

Revelation 1:5-6

1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood,

1:6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

The processes are below:

1. Jesus had to die on the cross to set us free from sins by His blood, and then we live in the righteousness.
2. Jesus made the righteous people become priests and kings, for the building of the perfect body of Christ.

If the sinful people are righted and lifted up as priests and kings for the building of the perfect body of Christ, that is the kindness of God.

Our attitudes to God's kindness are below:

1. Â We HAVE TO receive God's kindness, i.e. HAVE TO serve the building of the perfect body of Christ, or HAVE TO have the ministry and the gift of the Holy Spirit.
2. We HAVE TO serve in God's kindness, not serve carelessly.

The practice of serving in God's kindness.

Titus 3:4-5

3:4 But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man appeared,

3:5 not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit,

Serving in God's kindness is servicing in the renewing of water and Holy Spirit baptism.

John 3:5-8

3:5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

3:6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

3:7 Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'

3:8 The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

The renewing of water and Holy Spirit baptism will yield God's servant which is like the wind.

Psalms 104:4

104:4 *Who makes His angels spirits, Â His ministers a flame of fire.

Serving as the wind means:

1. Emptying ourselves.
2. Being obedient.
Jesus emptied Himself and was obedient until His death on the cross.
Now, we have to empty ourselves and be obedient until the flesh does not sound anymore, whatever the risks.
3. Bringing the freshness, bringing the peace.

John 20:19

20:19. Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you."

The servant which is like the wind will bring peace wherever he is.

The servant which is like the wind also cannot be blocked by anything, God will always open the service door such that we can keep on being faithful and fervent in spirit.

If we serve God in His kindness (as the wind), we will be in His kindness hands.Â

This is a formula, and God will never deceive us.

The results are below:

1. Receiving God's caring power in the middle of dark, difficult, and unclean world.

Mark 6:34,37

6:34 And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to teach them many things.

6:37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to Him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?"

Carnally, our daily life and our future will be cared.

Spiritually, we will be cared by the true teaching Word such that we are satisfied and happy.

2. Receiving healing power to heal the carnal illness, bad financial condition.

Matthew 14:14

14:14 And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.

3. Receiving resurrection power to live what has been died.

Luke 7:13-14

7:13 When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep."

7:14 Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise."

Until God says "Do not weep!", means that there will be no more tears, i.e. we will already be in the New Jerusalem, becoming God's bride which is ready to welcome God's second coming and enter the kingdom of heaven.

God blesses you.
